TO THE PUBLIC.

Theatre-Royal, Covent-Garden,

MAY 16, 1797.

IN conſequence of repeated FORGERIES of TICKETS n BENEFIT NIGHTS, particularly on thoſe of Miſs WALLIS, Mr. INCLEDON, and Mrs. MATTOCKS, it has been found neceſſary o offer a large r the Diſcovery of the Perſon or Perſons concerned in this njuſt and cruel Practice.

REWARD

Mr. FAWCETT,

erefore, thinks it his Duty to warn his Friends and the Public m purchaſing TICKETS for his Night of Strangers, eſ- cially thoſe Perſons who ſell them in the Avenues of the EATRE, as all ſuch will be ſtopt at the Doors, and if forged, Perſons offering them for Admittance will be drawn into a greeable dilemma.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Theatre-Royal, Covent-Garden,

MAY 16, 1797.

IN conſequence of repeated FORGERIES of TICKETS on BENEFIT NIGHTS, particularly on thoſe of Miſs WALLIS, Mr. INCLEDON, and Mrs. MATTOCKS, it has been found neceſſary to offer a large for the Diſcovery of the Perſon or Perſons concerned in this unjuſt and cruel Practice.

REWARD

Mr. FAWCETT,

therefore, thinks it his Duty to warn his Friends and the Public from purchaſing TICKETS for his Night of Strangers, eſpecially thoſe Perſons who ſell them in the Avenues of the THEATRE, as all ſuch will be ſtopt at the Doors, and if forged, the Perſons offering them for Admittance will be drawn into a diſagreeable dilemma.